7. Casual Vacancies on the Community Council

Where a vacancy arises, which does not result in the number of Community Councillors falling below the minimum number, (as specified in paragraph 5 of the Scheme) and at least 3 months have passed since the last nomination process, the Community Council may agree to:-

- (a) hold an extraordinary general meeting in order that the vacancy (and any other outstanding vacancies) can be filled, on the basis that such vacancies would be publicised in prominent public places and the local press if possible, nominations invited and an interim election held if required; or
- (b) filling the vacancy by co-option, with voting rights to a maximum of 1/4 of the total voting membership of the Community Council, as governed by paragraph 6 of the Scheme

Where there is a proposal to co-opt members, the Community Council must seek expression of intent from people (who must be eligible for election to the Community Council)

Nominations for vacancies must be advertised in prominent public places 28 days prior to the meeting, where the vacancies will be placed on the agenda, and if possible, in the local press. Persons expressing an interest in being co-opted must make their intent known within 14 days of the publication.

The requirement to fill a vacancy does not apply where the vacancy falls in the last year of a 4 year term, in which case, the vacancy can remain unfilled, subject to the requirement to hold a by-election where the number of Community Councillors falls below 1/2 of the maximum Community Council membership

Should circumstances arise that lead to the number of elected Community Councillors falling below 1/2 of the maximum permitted membership, the Council shall be informed and shall undertake arrangements for a by-election to be held within 3 months from the elected membership deficit, as described within the Guidance Notes. If no further nominations are received the Council

If no further nominations are received then the Community Council will be dissolved and all assets returned to the Council.

The right to vote at any meeting of the Community Council shall be held by all Community Councillors, whether elected or co-opted, but not by Associate Members appointed for specific issues on a temporary basis, or ex-officio members. All decisions of the Community Council will be decided by a simple majority of those eligible to vote and present at the meeting.

In the event of a vote of the Community Councillors that results in a majority not being achieved, the Chairperson shall have a casting vote.

If a Community Council votes by a 2/3 majority that it has no confidence in an office bearer, the person elected to that post will be deemed to have been removed from that position.

Prior to taking any vote on the matter, the Community Council must give the office bearer the opportunity to respond to any matters that have caused the motion of no-confidence.
